

BOOK TALK

November 2023

WELCOME ★

Welcome to the the second edition of our Book Talk newsletter! What have you been reading and enjoying at home?

THE JS BOOKWORMS

This year's Reading Quiz team are enjoying delving deep into their books for the competition. Their first book is Tyger by S.F. Said.

They say....

"Tyger is a fantasy story set in an alternative reality. There is a menacing villain who is very evil! Tyger is a kind, magical creature who is in danger! We would recommend the story to Year 5 and 6 as it is thrilling, adventurous and emotional!" - The JS Bookworms

CLASS CORNER

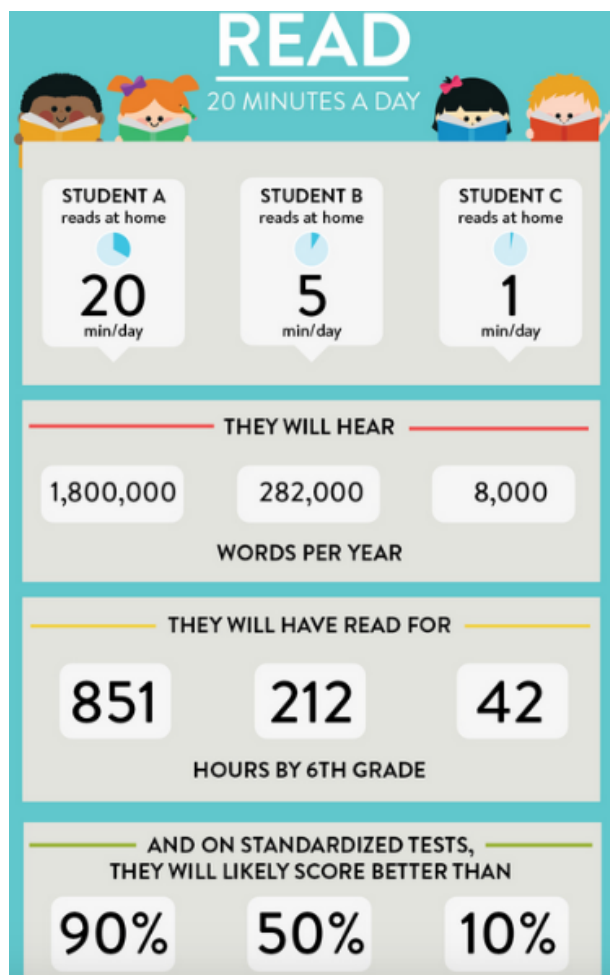

Year 3 are currently reading the classic text 'The Iron Man' by Ted Hughes. The children have been sharing their opinions about it in their Book Talk sessions and are using words such as 'dramatic' and 'eerie' to describe it! They are very intrigued with the plot and are asking lots of questions to make sure they understand. Excellent reading skills Year 3!

VIRTUAL BOOK FAIR

This month we will be running a virtual book fair with www.booksforbugs.co.uk. All books are brand new and priced at £2.99. Perfect to get your Christmas shopping started! For every 5 books you buy, the school gets 1 in return. Check out their website to start browsing!

READING RECOMMENDATIONS

November is National Non-fiction Month so here are some informative books we recommend...

Year 2 will be using Africa, Amazing Africa: Country to Country by Atinuke to inspire their non-fiction writing about Kenya. Each page is a mixture of text and illustrations to give information about all the countries in Africa. This book is aimed at children aged 4+.

Year 4 will be using The Story of Chico Mendes which is perfect for children in KS2 learning about rainforests, as well as inspirational figures who have changed the world for the better. This book is filled with beautiful illustrations and tells the story of Chico Mendez who worked tirelessly to protect the rainforests.
